3 13/4

11 /1/6

MENORATION FOR THE MICHE

SUBJECT: Questions Asked by Colonel Lane curing the ND/P-ADMIN Briefing.

PERSONNEL

- 1. If NO/P should be separated from NO/I and NO/A and become autonomous, what percentage of support personnel would be required to operate on that basis?
- 2. What caused the personnel strength to go up during 1952 and 1953?
- 3. Does the Agency contemplate an increase in personnel in connection with the completion of war planning as well as to meet the operational requirements requested by Befanse?
- 4. Boes the Agency ask Defense for trained intelligence Officers? (Col. Lane stated that he had noted that many of the Nevy Officers detailed to CIA do not have intelligence backgrounds.)
 - 5. Col. Lane requested a copy of the Personnel Strength Chart.
- 6. You have a contract in effect on all personnel that you use, don't you!
- 7. Are the security restrictions hampering operations? (Col. Lane also questioned the need for extreme secrecy.")
 - 8. Are all of your centract personnel in the field?
- Col. Lane commented that CIA personnel are qualified and that he disagrees with the previous reports that the Agency has mediocre personnel.
- 10. Col. Lane commented on the fact that the educational qualifications for typists are too high. College graduates recruited for typist positions become unhappy very quickly because they have their sights on better jobs. The observation was made by Col. Lane that he had found from experience that it was much better to recruit business school graduates who are trained specifically as typists and stemographers.

11. What is being done relative to the equalization of the benefits for overseas personnel under various types of cover?

Acist ICS

- 1. What personnel services are provided by GEA?
- 2. Col. Lane stated that based on his personal observations, the personal appearance of the females employed by the Agency leaves much to be desired. He further indicated that the environment of the temporary buildings, as well as faulty housekeeping, possibly contributes to this condition.
- 3. Do you pick up surplus war material donated by Defense on stock record accounts and include same in the over-all dollar value of stocks on hand?

25X1A

4. Col. Lane expressed doubt as to the capability of the to support the projected operational requirements as reflected by the Area Divisions.

- 5. Are the supplies and equipment located at overseas bases recorded on stock record cards?
- 6. Are the Headquarters buildings included under assigned properties listed on the Heal Estate Chart?

COMMERCIAL, MINET, AND PLANNING

- 1. Col. lane commented on the advisability of spending so much mensy on the also indicated that we need as an ally but apparently spend very little there. He further stated that from a "lay" viewpoint it would seem advisable to spend all the money necessary on Russia.
 - 2. Col. Lane requested a copy of the Budget Pie-Chart.
- 3. Col. Lane commented that he had found that the statement "The DD/F can spend a lot of money at the strake of a pen" is not true. (This statement was made during the presentation of Approved For Release 2000/09/14: CIA-RDP88-00374R000100270006-5

the Project Staffing Chart.)

- 4. Col. Lane made the observation that the PM Staff is not too well informed on planning matters.
- 5. Col. Lane commented that Mr. Heaver is most interested in saving "dollars"; however, he is also opposed to "dirty intelligence."
- 6. Col. Lane made the observation that he was making a conscientious effort to obtain all the information possible concerning IM/P activities in order to assist him in making an evaluation of how well we are doing our job. He further indicated that it is a most difficult and almost impossible task to estimate the true value of intelligence efforts.

25X1A

ID/P-ABILIN

DEC 31 1954

MEMORAHINEN FOR THE BEDGED

SUBJECT: Questions Asked by Calenel Lane during the DD/P-ADMIN

PERSONELL

- If ND/P should be separated from ND/I and ND/A and become autonomous, what percentage of support personnel would be required to operate on that besis?
- 2. What caused the personnel strength to go up during 1952 and 1953?
- 3. Does the Agency contemplate an increase in personnel in connection with the completion of war planning as well as to meet the operational requirements requested by Defense?
- 4. Does the Agency ask Defense for trained intelligence Officers? (Col. Lane stated that he had noted that many of the Navy Officers detailed to CIA do not have intelligence backgrounds.)
 - 5. Cal. Lane requested a copy of the Personnal Strength Chart.
- 6. You have a contract in effect on all personnel that you use, don't you?
- 7. Are the security restrictions hampering operations? (Col.
 - 8. Are all of your contract personnel in the field?
- Col. Lane commented that CIA personnel are qualified and that he disagrees with the previous reports that the Agency has mediocre personnel.
- 10. Col. Lane commented on the fact that the educational qualifications for typists are too high. College graduates recruited for typist positions become unhappy very quickly because they have This document has been approved for release through the HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM of the Central Intelligence Agency.

20-7

*22 L 4 / 1 / L L

01.196

their sights on better jobs. The observation was made by Col. Lane that he had found from experience that it was much better to recruit business school graduates who are trained specifically as typists and stemographers.

11. What is being done relative to the equalization of the benefits for overseas personnel under various types of cover?

LOCISTICS

- 1. What personnel services are provided by GRAT
- 2. Col. Lane stated that based on his personal observations, the personal appearance of the females employed by the Agency leaves much to be desired. He further indicated that the environment of the temperary buildings, as well as faulty housekeeping, possibly contributes to this condition.
- 3. Bo you pick up surplus war material donated by Defanse on stock record accounts and include same in the over-all dollar value of stocks on band?
- to support the projected operational requirements as reflected by the Area Divisions.

1999

- 5. Are the supplies and equipment located at overseas bases recorded on stock record cards?
- 6. Are the Heedguarters buildings included under assigned properties listed on the Heal Estate Chart?

COMMERCIAL, HUDGET, AND PLANTING

- 1. Col. Lane commented on the advisability of spending so much money on the also indicated that we need that we need that we need that spend wery little there. He further stated that from a "lay" viewpoint it would seem advisable to spend all the money necessary on Russia.
 - 2. Col. Lane requested a copy of the Budget Pie-Chart.
- 3. Col. Lane commented that he had found that the statement "The DD/P can spend a lot of money at the stroke of a pen" is not true. (This statement was made during the presentation of the Freject Staffing Chart.)

SECHLI

- k. Col. Lane made the observation that the PM Staff is not too well informed on planning matters.
- 5. Col. Lane commented that Mr. Moover is most interested in saving "dollars"; however, he is also opposed to "dirty intelligence."
- 6. Col. Lane made the observation that he was making a conscientious effort to obtain all the information possible concerning ND/P activities in order to assist him in making an evaluation of how well we are doing our job. He further indicated that it is a most difficult and elect impossible task to estimate the true value of intelligence efforts.

